Tucker = City Jail

Dr Williams = Is the Chief or Akers in?

Tucker = No, they have all gone but me.

Dr. Williams: Well, this is Dr Williams

This morning there was a man in the Lobby of the Hospital and he said he was Dr. Bunce from Tulsa. He looked rather distinguished and carried himself well so I asked him if he'd like to witness an operation - that we were getting ready for an operation that might be of interest. He said he would and so I told him we'd call him when we were ready. In about 20 minutes Dr. Tribble and I made ready for the operation and sent for this Dr. Bunce but he had gone. Then we finished the operation Dr. Tribble discovered about $17 gone from his clothes in the dressing room and I had lost about $10 which was in my suit. One of the Sisters said she saw a man of the same description on the 3rd floor where the operation room is located but he gave her

17.29.36

The name of Cunnelly. This man was about 35 to 45 in age; tall; fair complexion; partly bald, and was wearing a dark suit and a dark hat. I wish you'd have the officer try and locate him.

Jucker: Just as soon as some of them come in I'll have them get on it.

Dr Williams: I wish you would because this fellow might be trying this same thing somewhere else. This happened about 10 or 10³⁰ this morning.

MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR E. J. CONNELLEY:

Re: Brekid.

There are attached hereto the logs for December 26, 1936 covering the taps on telephones listed to the Chief of Police, City Jailor, and Mayor's Office, all located in the City Hall at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

That conversation at 8:52 A.M. between Attorney C. Floyd Huff and "Dutch" Akers seems to indicate that Attorney Huff might be in sympathy with the City Police in the John Dickson matter. It should be noted that Attorney Huff is one of the two attorneys retained by Dickson's father to investigate the true causes of young Dickson's death.

MAV The conversation at 11:00 A.M. between "Dutch" Akers and Houston Emory who is the Prosecuting Attorney of Garland County, indicates that the Fletcher brothers have been approached to make a statement favorable to the police in the Dickson matter.

That call at 2:12 P.M. by "Dutch" Akers to Attorney C. Floyd Huff seems to bear out the possibility suggested in the second paragraph of this memorandum.

In the conversation at 6:40 P.M. between "Dutch" Akers and Circuit Judge Earl Witt, particular attention is directed to the following statement made by Akers, "Judge, this is Herbert Akers. That boy (Pug Dickson) backed out on us again today". Previous conversations indicated that an attempt was being made to have "Pug" Dickson sign a statement favorable to the Police in the John Dickson case, for which he could expect some leniency in his own case.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Madala,
Special Agent.

Albright: Hello.

Akers: Gray - this is Dutch. The have you got up at Paris?

Albright: John Hendricks is at Fort Smith. That's the nearest man.

Akers: What do you know about the Sheriff at Mena.

Albright: I don't know, Dutch. I think he's all right tho'.

Akers: He had a stick up here about an hour ago. Got about $1200 from a Bookie here. He knew the guy - his name is Farmer Jefferson. He was armed with a #5 cal. and ordered the men back and locked them in the toilet.
Art Harris, who sells liquor to all the punks running liquor into Oklahoma is one of his Luddies and I think he's headed in that direction. His folks have been living here but are all packed and are all set to move to Sand Springs so he might turn up over around Tulsa or Oklahoma City.

Albright: Have you got a description of him, Dutch?

Akers: Yes. He is about 45 years old. Has sort of a leather face; dark hair; medium dark complexion; 5 feet 10 inches; weight 160-175 lbs. Was wearing dark clothes.

Albright: What kind of a car did he have?

Akers: He doesn't have a car that we know of. He picked him up in 1937 for hiding that fellow Holman - you remember. How about the Sheriff up there. You think he's all right.

Albright: Yes, Dutch. I think so.

MEMORANDUM FOR INSPECTOR E. J. CONNELLEY:

Re: Brekid.

There are attached hereto the logs for December 27, 1936 covering the taps on telephones listed to the Chief of Police, City Jailor, and Mayor's Office, all located in the City Hall at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

The conversation recorded at 9:18 A.M. reveals that Night Captain Bob Moore is apparently the "leak" in the Hot Springs Police Department.

The conversation made at 12:50 P.M. is somewhat incoherent, but it is believed that Akers talked with Arch Cooper in this instance.

In the conversation between Mayor McLaughlin and "Dutch" Akers at 6:45 P.M. there is indicated that Mayor McLaughlin in talking with Dr. Randolph who is the Coroner of Garland County, fixed it so that there will be no inquest in the death of John Dickson. Dr. Randolph in a statement to the press on the following morning indicated that he will not hold any inquest in instant matter, for the reason that he was not informed of the autopsy performed on the body of Dickson until after the same was made public. It also appears from said conversation that efforts are being made to secure a signed statement from "Pug" Dickson favorable to the administration, for which he can expect some leniency.

The conversation at 7:48 P.M. between the Mayor and "Dutch" Akers undoubtedly refers to Akers interview with Dr. Randolph, the coroner.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Madala,
Special Agent.

(cont.)

Leo -

Well, I told you about my conversation this morning with Randolph. You know where he lives don't you? It's out near brother's place on the lake - I want you to go out there and get the message that he was going to give me - when I talked to him I could read between the lines and it looks like he wants to do something to help.

Akers -

all right, I'll call you when I get back. I think this is going to work out all right.

(note: Conversation probably refers to the beating of John Dixon by police -

Dr. J. P. Randolph listed as:
